Stapleton House is situated in Jarrow, a small town near the river Tyne. Stapleton House is a purpose built care home close to the town centre and has good links with the metro and bus services. Stapleton House has three spacious lounges, one of them being a sensory woodland lounge. We have 2 generous sized dining rooms with their own kitchenettes. Other facilities include therapy/beauty salon, very large garden with plenty of seating areas, wet rooms and specialist bathrooms. All the rooms are very spacious with own en- suites and amazing views.
